

Our founder, Matt “Bert” Berthiaume, had an idea to create a restaurant that was more than just a place that served great food. Bert wanted to give Duluth locals a place where they'd always feel at home. A place where they could get no-nonsense food at down-to-earth prices, and where they'd be treated right by people who had a passion to serve.

The culture at The Social House was instilled by Bert long before a mission statement was ever written down on paper and is as evident as ever today. At The Social House, guests, team members and community are all treated with respect. We're loved for our great homemade pancakes, our signature BBQ Brisket Benedict, our hand-pattied burgers, hearty omelets, and more. All are served in a distinctly hearty style, enjoyed over good times with great family and friends. Simple, honest, genuine food.

Never pretentious.
Always satisfying.
